

Constructed Response Questions with Progress Learning

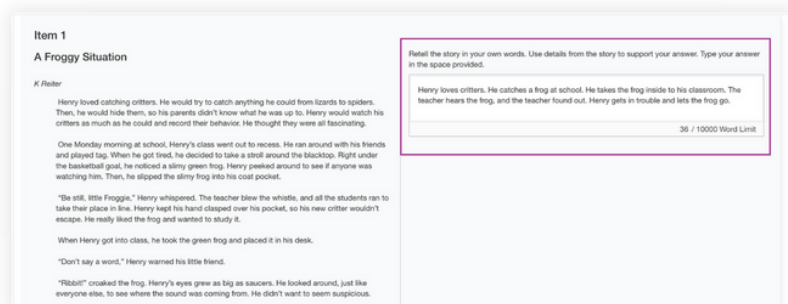

Teachers can assign students constructed response questions from the Progress Learning question bank or self-author their own constructed response questions!

Teachers can set a maximum character limit and set the maximum point value from 1-100.

Teachers can include constructed response questions in the form of Essay with Rich Text or Short Text.

Teachers can type in feedback for the student, as well as regrade the response if necessary.

